THE threatening shadow of that projected new Gaol loomed up once more at the last meeting of the Legislative Council. A great deal will depend upon Sir GROHGE Bowen, who will doubtless be called upon, as one of his first duties, to report upon the gaol requirements. Should be consider the present accommodation sufficient, the work may be deferred; but it is just as likely he may come out with instructions to carry out this with other public works with as little dolay as possible. In that case the next thing will be to find the most suitable site. If the present structure is abandoned, the site should be sold, and it ought to realise a good sum as it is most controlly situated. But a portion of it would no doubt be required for a bouse of detention, and in that case the amount saved would not be very considerable. Perhaps the best site for a new Gaol would be the level ground near Causeway Bay. where no expensive levelling would be required. This site would be far more convenient of access than Stonecutter's Island. and would cost far less than a site above Bonham Road. There is plenty of granite in the vicinity, and there need not be any extensive earth-outting such as would be necessary on an elevated site like Bonham Road. No doubt, how. ever, these considerations will be duly weighed by the Surveyor-General, who of course will be asked to suggest the most suit-

Rumours from Kores (says the Japan Mail) point to a probability of fresh disturbances. It is said that the inhabitants of Kang-won, Chun. oliong, and Kyong-sang contemplate an attack on the metropolis' with a visw to the expulsion of Chinese and Japanese soldiers from the country. Such an attempt is certainly within the range of probabilities, but if made it will doubtless have an ending very different from the first result of the Daison-Kun's intrigue. China must be very well aware that Korea will not submit for ever to a military occupation, and if the Celestial braves now quartered at Soul are taken by surprise, it will be their own fault.

It is, however, to be regretted, that the Head of the administration here has got some red tupe crockets into his head and, in his dual capacity of Lieutenbut Governor as well as President of the Municipal Board, is throwing unnecessary obstacles and blocking the progress of the Company's operations by raising the most trivial technica objections. We always considered the Honour able Major MoNair to be an official who earnestly tried to push forward any useful institution, we regret to learn that in the case of the Electric Light and Power Company's plans his faction of late have been the reverse.

BRITISH POLICY. LONDON, 14th December, 1882. Lord Dorby has made a speech at Manchester in which he disavowed a policy of annexation and stated that the protectorate of Egypt will remain no longer than necessary.

VICTORIA REGATTA, 1882.

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Victoria Regatta was commenced yesterday afternoon, when half the programme was disposed of in a most successful manner, ! That necessary concomitant of an enjoyable day's sport, fine weather, was accorded by the Clerk of the Weather, in fact the elevients seemed to have altered their nature on purpose to sul the occasion. The somewhat cold, blenk weather. which had prevailed in this colony for a few days | H.M.S. Encounter's 5-cared Whaler before, and which is so particularly felt upon the H M.S. Summent The arrangements were somewhat different to quarter of a mile off the Kowlcon shore, and part which were two long tables; on which a capital titlin was tostefully set out. The course was the same as in former years, the mile races being rowed from off a mark ashore, a little to the eastward of Yaumati village, to an imaginary line between the lighters and the shore, and the mile-and-half course, the necessary distance further back. The attendance on the lighters was not nearly so large as has been the case in former years, and the attendance of ladies showed a great falling off. The steam tog Fame was kindly lent by the Dock Company to convey the spectators off to the lighters, and she can two trips from Pedder's Wherf. His Excellency the Administrator was present on board the Government launch Charles May with a party of ladies and gentlemen, and a large numbor of launches were upon the scene, following up the races, or otherwise affording a means of viewing the sport, whilst a numerous contingent of spectators also hovered round the course sampans. The sport afforded was about up to the average of late years, excepting that the amateur rowing seemed hardly so good on the whole as has generally been the case. The number of competitors in the Canton fours was not to large as was expected, owing to some of the orows selected breaking up in consequence some members being unable to go on wit the training; the want of a fifth man each crow, as was appointed last year, was felt in those cases. The junior soull made but a very poor show, but the competition was hastily got together at the very last, and to one had fairly trained for it; in fact it was thought there would be no junior souls race this year. The defeat of the German crew the Chairman's Cap was hardly expected. For the last week or more they bad been going so rell in the training that they were the favourites. As it was they looked like winning nutil near the finish, when Angier's crew passed them, and won by half a length after a splendid struggle. The latter boat, the Lock, was steered by Fisher.

SUPREME COURT 15th December.

SUMMARY JURISDICTION. BEFORE MR. JUSTICE ENOWDER

MOONEY V. LAI AFONG.

Mr. Wotton appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Johnson for the defendant. His Lordship now gave jud ment as follows The plaintiff was to the end of November from 1st January themaster, and the defendant is part-owner of the steamship Hainan. This is an action brought to recover a sum of $314 due on an account stated, or rather being a sum. for which the defendant gave a promissory note to make up the balance, after a cash payment on a stated account. The note was unstamped and contented herself with her single sail, and doing so cannot be sued upon, and the defendant now claims to set off against it $275 to which he says the plaintiff is not entitled in consequence of breach of a condition he made not to cousume Meiji. own; in consideration of which defendant, who engaged him, agreed to give him $25 a month over and above his salary of $200. Defendant says after the settlement of accounts and before be had paid the $314 he found out that the plaintiff had been drinking his wines and boor and is not entitled to the $25 a month for the 11 months at which his service is calculated, $275, and he pays into Court the balance $39-8314 I was inclined to think that the defendant could not I raise this defence in this way, because us Lord of an account stated in the case of Laycock v. save her time. Im. 40sees...or not, but although Pickles. 33 1.J., Q.B. 47-"The matter (i.e. not think that defendant, as Mr. Wotton argued need bring his action for damages for breach of contract or for money had and received -but may resist the payment in the first instance-although it is a very special defence; and notice cught to have been given. The failure of consideration is also only partial and severable; the $25 were to be paid (eccording to the evidence on both sides) as an addition to the first offer. If so, whether they were to be paid for incidental expenses without any stipulation about wine and spirits, as the plaintiff states, or whether they were to be paid apon the consideration that plaintiff abstained from using the wine-and spirits sent on board by the defendant for the use of passengers, would not make any difference. It was agreed upon, as . think is proved, as an addition, and is severable, and so even if it had been paid could be recovered back. If it were not saverable, as the contract for services has been performed it could not be recovered back if paid or withheld before payments in the present case. The plaintiff alleges that $200 a month were offered him and refused and that then defendant proposed $25 a month more, and he accepted. Defendant says that he offered officers and men of any regiment or corps in $200, that plaintiff objected on the ground that Garrison, or by European Members of the the incidental expenses were heavy and not suffisiently provided for; that he then offered $25 a month to governil incidental expenses, plaintiff prosecond race on first day, and outrigged boats | viding himself with wines and spirits and serated waters. Which is the correct representation? First of all, it is to be observed that in a scale of salaries and expenses shown by defendant to plaintiff the Captain's enlary appears at $200, and apposite the allowance for officers' mess, $160, are the words "no wines." Although the Captain does not admit it I think that he must be held to mile; this cup to be won two consecutive years | have belonged to the officers' mess. I cannot imbefore being finally held; won last year by the lagine that there would be a separate mess for the Captain if he chose to claim it in a ship of the Hainan class. No provision is made for it. I this list is the basis of the agreement why should the defendant give the plaintiff $25 a month nore to cover all incidental exponses as well as wines which are not only not included but are expressly excluded from their contract. I doubt f anything was said about it, but wines were exeluded by the words on the list "no wines. The plaintiff says that the 3:25 were not to include wine and spirits. Now, in the account for January the salary is put down as $200 and $25 added for "self." In the February account it is the same, only the $25 is included in an item of $50 which represents two payments of $25 for the current and coming month, as I understand it. race on first day excluded. Time for oars, -6 In the March account the salary is stated as $225 in the duplicate plaintiff produces; in the part held by defendant (the original) the $225 is ultered to $200; the addition of the figures is not sitered but from the total $25 are deducted and ON CALCUTTA,-Bank, 3 days sight 2241 initialed by plaintiff. A memo, made by defend. On SHANGHAL. unt, which was not objected to, stated that it was paid to make good for wines and serated waters Looms to the conclusion that the defendant's version is the correct one, that the 825 a month were intended to nover all incidental expenses and that his salary was exclusive of wines, etc., as appeared by the list shewn him at the time of the cugagement. No wines were allowed for the officers' mess. The claim, however, of the defendant is a great deal too high. He clearly, seconding to his own account, overlooked the months' drink bill and not apon a condition, but because plaintiff expressed an intention of having his own wines a very different thing; was an independent promise to carry out the contract! There were only 9 or 10 sengers who would be provided with wines in the ten months in question. Some one consumed 438 bottles of claret and wines. Mr. Afong occasionally had some when he went on board, but the plaintiff, who claims a right to use the wines and spirite, must be credited with by far the larger share. The defendant claims to delnot the $25 a month for the elsven months over which the plaintiff's salary extends. He clearly annut do so, because the $25 was not paid to cover wine only or even at all, but to cover inoidental expenses exclusive of wine on condition that he provided his own. He has failed to do this; but the breach does not go to the root of the whole consideration for the $25. The defendant is entitled to be repaid the price of the wines and beer consumed by the plaintiff. The cost of the whole was $81 at about $2.75 for claret and $2.50 to $3.20 for beer. It is impossible to say how much Captain Mooney consumed, by I think that a fair sum would be $6 a month for the 92 months during which he was actually employed, and this I am prepared to allow, viz., $57-less the three months' account which defendant forgave him and allowed in the account for the current months. Judgment for plaintiff for $275.46 with costs. POLICE COURT.

MONEY LETTERS. Public attention is called to the following extract from the Hongkong Postal Guide, Paragraph 80:--"The Post Office declines all responsibility for unregistered Letters containing Bank Notes &c., and, where Registration has been neglected WILL MAKE NO ENQUIRIES into alleged losses

Boxes of letters are sometimes received at the Post Office not sealed, that is to say, the box is fastened with sealing wax, but there is no impression of a seal, The attention of horholders is called to the necessity of carefully scaling such hores with some recognisable seal, and of sanding a chitbook or receipt with them. The emission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to whether the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office; the omission of the former, as to whether part of them might not have been abstracted for the sake of the Postage Stamps.

A SALT MINE TWO THOUSAND

YEARS OLD. A mine has been found in the mountain near Salsburg, Austria, which gives indications of having been occupied and abandoned at least two thousand years ago. It contains a large and confused mass of timbers used for support, and miners' implements. were notched and sharpened subject to an inundation, left in confused heaps. The implements were mainly wooden shovels, are-handles, &c. Among the relics also, was a basket made of nataoned raw hide a piece of cloth woven of coarse wool, the fibre of which is very even, and still in good, preservation, and torch bound together with flax fibre. The probabilities are that the ancient saltminers were overtaken by the flooding of the mine ulso. The find seems to have belonged to the pre-Roman times as the are-handles were evidently used for bronze axes specimens of a der, the basket being superior even to some that were used in the early historic times.

At a meeting the Royal Geographical Society in June, 1868, the late Professor Tennant's reference "the discovery of diamonds in a new locality, the Cape Colony," was received with impatience, the majority of the members appearing to think that the question was only raised to direct attention to the stock of certain West End tradeamen, for it was stated at the time that Mesers.
